WE'RE BUYING OUR SECURITY, SPEAKER SAYS

Joliet Man Tells Rotary How Old Age Plan Works

"We don't make our living any more—we buy it," declared G. Albert McCollum of Joliet, manager of the district social security board, who discussed the federal old age assistance law at the Rotary meeting Thursday noon in the Hotel Kankakee.

In the present age, when practically everything must be bought and when the earning power of persons over 65 is practically zero, some form of assistance is necessary to sustain the lives of the needy aged, contended McCollum.

Evidence bearing out this idea was offered by the speaker in the recent report of a group of the nation's leading employers who have been studying the workings of the law with a view to recommending changes. "The employers' committee stated it was convinced of the wisdom of the contributory plan as set up in the social security law."

A "Sinking Fund"

Admitting that the law is far from perfect, the speaker said changes undoubtedly would be made from time to time, but that the general plan would be retained.

When a factory owner buys new machinery, he sets up a depreciation account to create a sinking fund for it. Why should a man also have a fund for himself that he is contributing regularly to, for his use when he reaches age 65, McCollum continued.

Out of a group of 100 average men at age 25, only one will be well off 40 years later. At age 65, four others will be able to support themselves, 36 will be dead and 54 will be totally dependent, according to insurance statistics quoted by the speaker.

At present, more than 8,000,000 people in the U. S. are over the age of 65, with most of them dependent either on charity or their children. In another 20 years this number will be swelled to approximately 15,000,000, it is estimated.

Pay for Own Relief

The theory behind the social security laws, under which 42,000,000 breadwinners are now registered, is to solve the problem of dependency and insecurity yet keep these people off relief by having them contribute toward their own annuities, it was explained.

McCollum cited as an example a man 35 years old earning $100 a month. That man will receive, if he lives and quits work at age 65, $42.50 each month the rest of his life, which means that he will receive $510 annually although he has contributed only $900; his employer also contributes $900. A man has a life expectancy of 12 years after reaching 65. Therefore, if that man lives to be 77 he will have received

Mrs. Mildred B. Barker of Mokena, represented by Attorney E. P. Harney, asks custody of her five-year-old daughter, Peggy Joyce. Mrs. Barker and Robert L. Barker were married on May 14, 1933, the complaint states, and lived together until June 20, 1937.

Mrs. Gladys M. Kline of Hagerstown, Md., is named defendant in the suit by Albert H. Kline of Kankakee. There are no children.

Mrs. Kline is represented by Attorney Larry S. Streeter.

Weather Man Predicts Rain For Middle West

Chicago, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Rain began moving into the middle west again today as heavy downpours in the far west and east diminished or ceased.

The storm along the Pacific coast, bringing rain, snow and heavy seas, took at least one life and heavy property damage. Sightseers at Seaside, Ore., were menaced by jetsam. At San Francisco waves ate into the beach and forced closing of the great highway.

In the east, fog delayed the scheduled morning takeoff of planes in the New York-Miami air race, opening the Miami all-American air maneuvers.

The weather map showed precipi-

YOUTH DIES IN TRAP SET FOR EXTORTIONIST

East St. Louis, Ill., Jan. 6.—(AP)—A 13-year-old boy slain here in a trap set for an extortionist apparently was the unwitting dupe of the man sought, police declared today.

The boy was identified by a neighbor as David Kaempff, son of Mrs. Philona Kaempff, a widowed housekeeper. The mother had asked to see if David had fallen asleep in a movie theater as he once had done.

Unable to find the boy, Mrs. Kaempff went to police.

Detective Sergeant Clifford Flood reported finding the fatal blast from his riot gun as the boy fled from the porch of Miss Kathryn Walsh last night.

Miss Walsh, 25, earlier in the evening reported receiving a note threatening death unless $50 were placed in a milk bottle on her porch.

Flood and two patrolmen, Fred Sanders and Harley Kent, hid in the Walsh home after placing a dummy package in a milk bottle on the porch.

Believe Laid Bribe

The detective said the boy walked up to the porch and bent over the bottle.

"Stop where you are," Flood said. "Shout the boy ran. The detective followed him to the porch.

BULLETIN

Hurst, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The government of Carpatho-Ukraine, autonomous division of Czechoslovakia, issued a denial today of Budapest reports that Czechoslovak troops had attacked and shelled the Hungarian village of Oroszpeg on the outskirts of Munkacs.

A communique said that "Hungarian terrorists" crossed into Carpatho-Ukraine during the night, attacked Czechoslovak border patrols and wounded one soldier. The communique added that the patrols chased the terrorists back across the border.

BULLETIN

Budapest, Hungary, Jan. 6.—(UP)—An official announcement tonight said that Hungarian troops had driven Czechoslovak soldiers and invaders back across the frontier after an all-day battle with artillery, machine guns and tanks near Munkacs.

By ALVIN J. STEINKOFF

Budapest, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The Hungarian government reported today that Czechoslovak artillery bombardments of the border city of Munkacs in a pitched battle between Czechoslovak and Hungarian forces.

Reports of the battle, involving cannon, tanks and armored cars, spread a wave of excitement throughout the territory. Czechoslovakia ceded the territory to Hungary two months ago.

High officials of the government met in continuous conference.

The foreign office announced a strong protest had been made to Prague, charging violation of Hungary's border. It said the German and Italian legations in Budapest had been informed.

"Hungary waives all responsibility for what may happen," an official statement warned.

Official advice said both sides had suffered casualties.

No Trace of Farm Hand's Body Found

Sheriff Dan Beigan and Coroner A. E. Kerper have no further information about James Booker, 35-year old farm hand of west of Kankakee who has been missing since Friday noon.

They denied reports that the river is being dragged. They pointed out that there is no information about where to search.

The report as to dragging the river arose from a note found in an automobile which the farm hand recently purchased and which was found in downtown Kankakee on Saturday night.

The note said: "I am going to end all my worries soon" and "if you drag long enough in the Kankakee river you may find me."

Watseka, Jan. 6.—(RN Special)—Arthur P. Mellon of Pittsburgh was a prisoner in the Iroquois county jail today on suspicion of issuing a bad check.

He was arrested last evening by Chief of Police N. R. Tolle after he had cashed a $15 check by paying Manager Phil Mull of the Iroquois hotel for five days' room rent in advance, then walking over to the bus station and ordering a ticket to Kankakee.

Authorities were unable to learn whether the man is related to the well known Mellon family of Pittsburgh. He was well-groomed and made a good appearance. It was said. He is being held for investigation. The check bore the name of a Danville man.

THOS. MOONEY SEEMS ASSURED OF BEING FREED

Plans For His Life Outside Prison Walls

San Quentin, Calif., Jan. 6.—(AP)—Thomas P. Mooney, apparently assured of a pardon tomorrow when he appears before Governor Culbert L. Olson at Sacramento, turned today to plans for his life outside prison walls.

"I'm going to dedicate the rest of my life, if necessary," said Mooney, "to winning freedom for Warren Billings too."

Mooney and Billings were convicted of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment in the 1916 San Francisco preparedness day parade bombing in which 10 persons were killed and 40 injured. The defendants claimed they were accused falsely because of their reputations as "direct action" labor unionists, and that they were convicted on perjured testimony.

Governor Olson, newly-seated Democratic executive, already has said he believes Mooney innocent, and has declared he would announce his decision immediately after the pardon hearing.

Mooney said that as soon as he is free, he would go to Pismo on his late mother. Mrs. Mary Mooney, has kept alive his fight for freedom. At their home in San Francisco, she was hardly able to stand the strain of the last few hours before she would be reunited with him at Sacramento.

"Of course I'll be there," she said. "Have I ever failed Tom yet? I don't know whether my heart will stand it, but I'll be there and so will Tom's brother, John, and his sister, Anna."

"Oh, what a great day it's going to be. Just tell the reporters not to frighten me with their picture taking. Besides, I don't like to have my picture taken when my eyes are all red and everything."

She Denies Story About Her Demise

Della Henrsey, 84, of 3639 Lake Park avenue, Chicago, probably now knows how Mark Twain felt when he carried an item to the effect that Della Henrsey died Sunday at her home in Chicago.

In last Tuesday's issue of this newspaper, the Manteno column carried an item to the effect that Della Henrsey died Sunday at her home in Chicago.

From this same woman the Republican-News today received a letter informing that "I am very much alive and took charge of the funeral. It was my sister, Celia Henrsey of Evanston, age 76, who died New Year's morning. Funeral services were in Laila's chapel Tuesday night and burial was in Manteno on Wednesday noon."

Surviving are a brother N. C. Henrsey of Manteno, sisters Mary G. Henrsey of Grant Park and Della and Elizabeth.

Epidemic of Auto Thefts at Watseka

Watseka, Jan. 6.—(RN Special)—Sheriff Guy E. Redman solved one auto theft case last night but had two more to work on today.

Arrested last night was Harold Cook, 16, of Watseka, who is said to have confessed to taking the auto of Fred Miller of Watseka about two weeks ago and wrecking it on the cemetery curve two miles east of town.

About 6 o'clock last evening someone rode a girl's bicycle down South Second street, parked it in front of the Paul J. McFall home and took his auto. About 8:30 p. m. the auto of Walter Maloney was stolen from in front of the Iroquois club, driven east on Cherry street and crashed into a tree at the Jod in this thoroughfare near the old fairgrounds.

TORSO SLAYER SPURS SEARCH; WRITES LETTER

Los Angeles, Jan. 6.—(AP)—A letter mailed in Los Angeles and addressed to Police Chief George J. Matowitz of Cleveland, O., identifying the sender as Ohio's notorious "torso slayer," spurred police today to search for a possible victim of the mad killer.

The message, telling Cleveland police they "can rest easy now as I have come out to southern California for the winter," said the head of the writer's "lately victim" was buried in a "guilty" beside a boulevard in south Los Angeles.

Heretofore, as far as is known, the "mad butcher of Kingsbury run" has confined his activities to a shabby, scrubby area, criss-crossed by railroad tracks and a straggling little stream, at the backdoor of Cleveland's downtown district. The victims in Ohio number 12, seven males and five females, and all had been skillfully dissected.

"Science Must Advance"

"I felt bad operating on those people, but science must advance," read the letter, a copy of which was sent by Chief Matowitz to Los Angeles police. "I shall astound the medical profession, a man with only a D. C."

"What does their lives mean in comparison to hundreds of sick and diseased, twisted bodies? Just laboratory guinea pigs found on any public street. No one missed them when I failed. My last victim was successful. I know now the feeling of Pasteur, Thoreau and other pioneers. Right now I have a volunteer to make this an annual event."

Drunk Driver Arrested 2nd Time

P. E. Causar of 821 North Hobble avenue was arrested Thursday by Chief of Police L. B. Rogers and Officer Thomas Cantlin on a warrant charging him with operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

The complainant is Peter Majowicz of 730 South Poplar avenue, whose car and that of Causar were involved in a crash several days ago. At that time Causar was brought in and agreed to pay for damages. He didn't.

Following the hearing last night, Police Magistrate Edward Hoenicke said this morning that Causar was to be held to the county court on $500 bond.

Wills Jackson, colored, of 834 North Rosewood avenue, arrested by police Wednesday for threatening to kill a woman, was released, of 853 North Evergreen avenue, was also ordered bound over to the county court on $500 bond. Jackson pointed a shotgun at Shelton following an argument.

Shawneetown Starts on The Move Within Week

Shawneetown, Ill., Jan. 6.—(AP)—The second anniversary of the 1937 flood may be moving day for this Ohio river village.

Officials of the Gallatin county housing authority said today disaster loan corporation officials were expected here next week to approve the first contracts for moving homes from the present town to the new site out of reach of flood waters or to approve contracts for the construction of new homes.

WPA officials said if the contracts were approved by the middle of next week, the moving would begin before the week-end.

ED DENOYER, 52, SHOOTS SELF IN HEAD AT HOME

Wife and Daughter are Witnesses to Suicide

Edward Denoyer, 52, farmer near St. Anne and father of nine children, took his own life with a revolver this morning.

In the presence of his wife Elsie and his daughter Orelia he fired a .32 caliber bullet into his right temple. He died while being taken to St. Mary hospital in an ambulance.

Members of the family later told Deputy-Coroner Edward P. Madison that Denoyer arose about 7:30 o'clock this morning. He came out of the bedroom into the living room with his revolver in his hand.

"Do you see this gun?" he asked. Then he fired the shot.

Bought Bullets

His son Raymond told the coroner that his father had owned the gun for years but had not used it or had cartridges. The supposition is that he purchased the bullets in St. Anne yesterday.

For some 20 years Denoyer suffered from a heart ailment which was aggravated the past two years. He was in his usual spirits of late and had never spoken of suicide according to the family.

The coroner was to conduct the inquest at the Houk funeral home in St. Anne this afternoon.

Besides the widow, the daughter and the son above named he leaves children Sherman, Albert, Lawrence, Harold, Ralph, Isabelle and Eleanor, all of St. Anne, also a brother Louis of Kankakee.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

1,000 See Big Fire on Twelfth Night

Despite adverse weather conditions, close to 1,000 persons witnessed the first Twelfth Night program held last evening in Bird park under auspices of the Kankakee Recreation association.

After several attempts, a large pile of discarded Christmas trees, wet from an all-day rain, became ignited and burned for about an hour. Twelfth Night, or Epiphany, dates back to the early Christian era when the 12th night after Christmas was marked with special ceremonies. The association plans to make this an annual event.

LINDY SUBMITS CONFIDENTIAL REPORT TO U.S.

Nazi Air Strength Revealed by Ace Pilot

Washington, Jan. 6.—(P)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has given government officials a confidential report on Germany's air strength, it was learned authoritatively today.

Army officers declined to confirm receipt of the document, but it was assumed Lindbergh submitted it voluntarily.

The famous aviator still retains his commission in the United States army air corps reserve despite his three-year residence in Europe. He accepted a five-year renewal of the commission in the fall of 1937.

Lindbergh has visited Germany—as well as other European nations—at various times to study aviation facilities. He left Berlin Dec. 22 to spend the winter in Paris with his family.

Visited German Capital
He had gone to the German capital in October when he received from Field Marshal Goering the order of the German Eagle, one of the country's highest decorations.

Earlier in the fall he had inspected air fields and equipment in Soviet Russia. Eleven Russian airmen afterward accused him in a statement of minimizing Soviet air strength in order to give Prime Minister Chamberlain of Great Britain arguments for negotiating the Munich pact.

His report on German aviation arrived while the administration has been drafting a vast program of plane construction. Upwards of 10,000 aircraft for the army are expected to be advocated by President Roosevelt in his defense message to congress next week.
